Demonstrations & Illustrated Talks

Guidelines for making good posters:

- Plan ahead. Make a pencil sketch of your idea on a sheet of paper before you draw anything on your poster board.
- Pick one point to emphasize, place one point on each poster, or put a check mark by the emphasized point. Simplicity is important.
- A poster needs a clear title and illustrations to catch attention.
- Illustrations should relate to the message.
- Mark off the margins on your poster board before you sketch in anything else. Make the top and sides of the poster the same and the bottom a little wider.
- Pencil your design on the poster board before you start to draw with the magic marker. If pasting the items on, lay out before gluing them.
- Leave plenty of white space (empty space) so the message does not look crowded.
- You do not need full sentences – just key words to tell the message.

Lettering:

- Make letters bold enough (thick enough) to be read easily.
- | Lettering size | Viewing Distance |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| 1.5 inch | 8 feet |
| 2 inch | 16 feet |
| 3 inch | 32 feet |
- If using more than 5 or 6 words, use both capitals and small letters rather than only capitals.
- Space area between letters adequately. Use 1.5 letter-widths between words; 3 letter-widths between sentences.
- Plain, simple letters are easier to read than fancy ones.
- Use horizontal lettering rather than vertical. Vertical is too hard to read.

- Avoid mixing styles of lettering in the same message, unless it is for emphasis.
- When using cardboard stencils, fill in the spaces between parts of each letter. That makes them easier to read.
- Avoid script, unless it is a word or two for emphasis.
- Avoid lettering with pencil. It is too light to read.
- Avoid lettering with crayons. They are too uneven and smear easily.
- Choose colors carefully. The more contrast between the lettering and the background, the easier the message will be to read.

Favorite Foods

Favorite Food Show is an exhibit and contest to encourage 4-H'ers to learn about meal planning, food preparation, and presentation. This is a creative and fun event for 4-H'ers. A "Favorite Food" is chosen, and is recommended that it is one the 4-H'er likes and likes to prepare. A menu is planned with the food, and the table decor is coordinated. Foods chosen may be main courses, desserts, snacks, breads, casseroles or any other. A recipe card and a menu card should be displayed with the proper table setting. The 4-H'er will visit informally with the judge and tell how to prepare and serve the food, why they selected the table service and dishes, and why the centerpiece is appropriate. The 4-H'er should also know some of the nutritional value of the food and be able to discuss that with the judge.
